

2.44 O God, the Great All-Seeing Eye

Unison

1 O God the great all - see - ing eye from 2 When cer - tain - ty in - vades our minds and 3 With - in our struc - tured cer - tain - ties, with - 4 O God of faith that wan - ders far like 5 So we shall wan - der, trav - el - ler God, whom no truth is veiled may we tra - verse be - truth seems ours to own, con - front us with the in each ti - dy mind there lurks un - know - ing's A - bra - ham of old you call us out from towards the bright and dark for all is one with - yond the walls to which our faith is nailed.

 vast a - byss that forms our cos - mic home.
 wi - der truth un - fet - tered, un - con - fined.
 craft - ed walls to jour - ney with the bold.
 in your love, life's ev - er vi - brant spark.