Flower of Love

Unison/two-part chant with optional bells

Anonymous

Jayson Engquist, 1990

(♩ = 72)

Of all the flow'rs that grow on earth, each one must fade and die. But now a fade-less rose ap-pears: it comes from God on high. Its fra-grance fills the wea-ry earth. All hearts re-joice at Je-sus' birth.
Glo-ry spreads on our wa, God's own flow-er blooms to-day:
Christ the rose of love is born. Of repeat as necessary

On the final repeat, it is suggested that voices sing in two-parts.
If only treble voices are singing, use the top score on the following page.
If mixed voices are singing, sopranos and basses sing the melody, and tenor and alto sing the lower notes (tenors sing an octave higher than written).

Optional bells
